From the Pastor's Desk

Living in Divine Mercy. Life is a joy when our relationships with others, spouse, family, friends and co-workers are in balance. But when one or the other of our relationships are out of balance, due to anger, disappointment, envy, jealousy or other disrupting factors, you and I find life a burden. Obviously, for people of faith, this holds true for our relationship with God, our Father. The difference being, that this relationship can be fractured only by our action or in-action. Also, this relationship is not only individual but also communal. We, as a people, a community, nation, world, can fracture our relations with God.

In order for us to be in a right relationship with each other and God, you and I need to be open first, to His mercy that comes to us through His Son, Jesus, and also, to His Holy Spirit that He gives to His Church, so that we may show mercy to each other. Consequently, God's mercy, His singular act to save us from eternal death, is two-pronged. God acts on our behalf restoring the balance of our relationship with Him, our Creator, and then expects us to do the same with each other.

The Gospel account of the Risen Christ appearing to the disciples makes this clear. Christ died and rose to bring us back to God, to forgive our disobedient nature. His appearance to the disciples confirms this. He says first – “Peace be with you.” There is no peace where relationships are broken, imbalanced. But Christ set the balance for us and so now offers us peace. Then He tells the disciples and us to do the same, to forgive as He has forgiven. Herein lies an important understanding; we can only forgive in the pattern of Jesus. Thus, we cannot, the Church cannot, forgive if you or I knowingly persist in our sin, the actions that bring imbalance to our relationships with God and others.

The Divine Mercy Jesus brings is not magic. You and I need to freely accept it and then live by it in our lives. Thomas, in the Gospel, is an example of this. He was not there when Jesus appeared the first time; the peace Jesus brought on that first visitation did not magically come upon Thomas. No, he was still troubled and did not believe. He could not freely be open to God's mercy. It was not merely a matter of doubting, but it was that he used his “free will” to doubt. He could have used it to believe. It is not until later that Thomas faced with Christ in the risen flesh surrenders his free will willingly and so partakes in God's mercy.

The sacraments of our initiation into God's family, the Church (Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist) are invitations to live in God's mercy. But, they in themselves cannot make us right with God and others unless we use our free will to live by what they teach and implant in us. They teach us that, through obedience to His commandments, we die to our disobedience and selfishness, like Christ who drank the cup, and only then do we have peace. Peace is not found in “doing it my way.” Peace is only found, and Divine Mercy is only experienced, in trying to do it God's way.

I cannot say that I am a Christian, a Catholic, a follower of Jesus and then ignore those commands that demand more of me than I wish to give. I cannot experience God's mercy freely given unless I strive, by His help, to freely surrender my free will to His Will. This is what the disciples do. This is what the first believers do in the reading from the Acts of the Apostles. This is what countless persons have done throughout the ages. This is what you and I must do to know His Divine Mercy fully and to be able to impart it to others.

WARRIOR OF THE WEEK

Max Janquart

I have been attending SMS since preschool. I am planning to go to Andean High School. I want to go to Andean because I have a lot of friends there and they have good sports teams. I play basketball and volleyball for SMS. My personal favorite sport to play in school is volleyball. Outside of school, I like to play video games with my friends. I also like playing and watching football. Football is probably my favorite sport to play and watch. SMS is special to me because I have a lot of friends that I love spending time with. I think it is very important to have friends in school because then you have something to look forward to in school. It is also special because I've been going to this school for so long so it has grown special to me. My advice to younger students is to have fun but still focus on school first. If you push yourself, you can get far in life. More advice is to put yourself out there. Play sports or do other activities. SMS has made me grow as a person in many different ways. It has made me a better friend by showing me how to be a good friend by being loyal and listening to your friends. They show me to be a better family member by respecting and loving your family. They show me how to be a better student by teaching me to learn and respect our teachers. They show us how to be a better disciple by teaching us about God and how to follow in God's way. It shows us to be a better person.

SPECIAL SHOUTOUTS

Congratulations to SMS 6th grade girls basketball team for being the runner-up in the post season tournament! They fought hard and played their best. Great job ladies!

Congratulations to a few of our second graders whose weather sketches were shown on Channel ABC 7 with Tracy Butler: Liam C., Chloe F., Scarlett D., and Daniel C. They had beautiful drawings.

“As the Father has sent me,
so I send you.”

JOHN 20:21

Jesus did not waste time. While the disciples were still reeling with amazement at His Resurrection, Jesus introduced them to their mission: “As the Father has sent me, so I send you” (John 20:21). The Father sent Jesus into our world to bring hope. On this Divine Mercy Sunday, God’s mercy is the greatest hope our broken world has ever known.

We have been sent, and it is our job to spread the message. In the coming days, our neighbors need to see our Resurrection joy and be moved by our witness so that they wonder, “Where do they get it?” The answer is, “Jesus.” Please support our Catholic Services Appeal, so that we can make more people curious about Jesus-until His Kingdom comes again in glory. May He bless you and help you know Divine Mercy like never before.

Effective April, 2020: In an effort to provide accurate weekly collection totals, there is a six week lag in bulletin reporting. The timing of when weekly collections are received changed in early 2020, due to Covid. We went from 90% received on Sunday, to 30%. We have gradually moved up to 70%, but feel it's best to hold off on reporting until the majority of envelopes are received.

WOMEN'S SPRING RETREAT

HOPE & HEALING- RACHEL'S VINEYARD RETREAT APRIL 12-14TH

A past abortion can bring much grief and regret. It leaves a deep spiritual and emotional wound. Rachel's Vineyard retreats have been helping women and men affected by abortion for over 20 years. It is confidential and nonjudgemental, based on Scripture and a safe place to be honest with oneself, bringing about forgiveness, closure, and healing. The stories are always different. But the pain, regret, tears, shame and loss are shared. Some have buried their guilt for a short time. Many others for decades. If you know someone whose life has been touched by an abortion, be it a woman or a man, please take courage and reach out to them. Tell them about Rachel's Vineyard and let them know that there is forgiveness, hope and healing. Call or text the confidential number 219-552-2944, or email nwinrv@outlook.com. www.helpafterabortion.net.

BNI'S BIGGEST FUNDRAISER

Bishop Noll Institute is proud to announce the return of its annual fundraiser, The Big Event! The Big Event! will take place Saturday, April 27th, 6:00-11:00 PM, in the Bishop Noll fieldhouse (1519 Hoffman Street, Hammond, IN). This 21+ evening promises to be a fun-filled celebration featuring a delicious catered dinner by Pepino's, entertainment, exciting raffles, and much anticipated silent and live auctions. New this year will be the opportunity to tour recently renovated areas of the school including the BNI STREAM Lab and music room. Student representatives from various clubs and athletics will also be in attendance to talk to guests about their Bishop Noll experiences. Proceeds from The Big Event! directly benefit Bishop Noll's student scholarship fund. Typically raising more than $50,000, these funds play a vital role in ensuring a BNI education remains accessible to deserving students, regardless of financial limitations. Bishop Noll is seeking the support of the community to make The Big Event! a resounding success. Sponsorship opportunities, auction item donations and ticket purchases are greatly appreciated.

THE WORD*(Readings for April 14th, Third Sunday of Easter)*I. Acts of the Apostles 3:13-15, 17-19

Peter said to the people, “the author of life you put to death, but God raised Him from the dead.” God brought to fulfillment what the prophets announced long ago: that the Messiah would suffer.

II. 1 John 2:1-5a

John told believers that Christ Jesus is a just intercessor who offers sacrifice for the sin of the whole world and that a person cannot know Jesus without keeping His commands.

III. Luke 24:35-48

The risen Christ appeared to the disciples and said, “Peace be with you.” The Lord ate fish in their presence and discussed the law, prophets and psalms with them, opening their minds to understand the Scriptures.
