From the Pastor's Desk

Back to the same old – same old? The Gospel relates to us the story of how Peter, James and John and a few others return to their former occupation as fishermen. Their returning to this past profession reminds us of when Jesus first found them fishing three years earlier. Peter wasn't so successful then, "catching nothing" and he and the others weren't being successful now. Both times Jesus points them in the right direction. The first time Peter tells Jesus to leave him for he is "a sinful man." The second time Peter leaps into the water to greet Jesus.

Now this is the third time, Jesus is recorded in John's Gospel as appearing to the disciples. The first time, He extends His peace, His merciful forgiveness; the second time He challenges Thomas for His unbelief and, in a sense, the other disciples for their inability to convince Thomas about the Lord's resurrection. Now all is set for them to live in this new reality, this new life they have been promised. But no, they return to their former occupation as if to say that all these events still did not impress upon them the need for them to be messengers of this "good news."

In this third visitation, Jesus makes it clear to Peter and to us that knowing and enjoying the benefits of our being forgiven and saved cannot be put under a bushel basket. Jesus asks: "Do you love me?" Peter answers all too quickly, "I do." Jesus then puts a condition on Peter's answer, "then feed my lambs." Jesus' poetic language calls Peter and the other disciples to care for people, all sorts of people. Remember Jesus says earlier that He has many sheep in other folds. Three times Jesus asks Peter - the disciples, "Do you love me?" Each reply of "I do," is followed by the condition that their love be made real by caring for the sheep.

Jesus asks us the same question, "Do you love me?" When we answer "I do" He charges us, like Peter and the other disciples, to feed the sheep and care for the lambs. Indeed, our love we profess for Jesus is only real when it is put into action. If you say you love someone, then you do as they ask. He has called us out of darkness into a NEW life; are we ready to act out of the newness we have been given?

Some people might consider their response to Jesus' question to be mainly a "private" one. Some might reason that because of scandal or disagreement about one or the other precepts of the Church that they will not participate in the Church's mission. But Peter is not given that luxury, and neither are we. Though Peter's response is borne from his heart, it commits him to action on behalf of Jesus, not just belief but acting on his belief and love. Love is not real unless it is supported by concrete action. Our concrete action is borne out in our sharing of our treasure and time and talent to feed Jesus' many sheep.

Why must it be done in this way? Because, the world will never know the presence of Christ except through the action of His Body, the Church. This action, which the world must see for its salvation, is both sacramental and charitable; one without the other handicaps the full presence of Christ not just for the world but for the people of God as well.

You and I are called to Christ's work both "in season and out of season." There have been and will always be forces that seek to dissuade us from being who we are intended to be for the world so that darkness can overcome light.

The Catholic Services Appeal is an important and concrete way that we act upon our love for Christ. A BIG THANK YOU to all those who have supported the CSA each year. As you know, much of what the CSA provides for are ministries that we as a parish cannot do on our own. Helping to support the many Religious Sisters that taught us in school or cared for us in the hospital is one goal of the CSA. Providing for the education of new priests is another goal. Giving support to our youth in growing their experience of Church and their faith is still a further aim of CSA. I request the help of everyone to reach our CSA goal. The few cannot bear the full burden. If you and I answer "I do" to Jesus' question, "Do you love me?" it is only logical that we show support for the work of His Church.

First Communions. Please remember in the kindness of your prayers our young people who will be coming to the Lord's Table for the first time, receiving Holy Communion. They will be joining us for their First Communion next Sunday, May 11th at the 9:30 and 11:30 AM Masses.

WARRIOR OF THE WEEK

Antonio Thompson

I started attending SMS in 2nd grade, when I was 8 years old. I am not sure where I am attending high school. My main options are Marian, Andean and Crown Point High School. Some activities I like to do are club soccer, school soccer, and school basketball. I have been playing soccer since I was 4 or 5. Something that makes SMS special is the way I can express my religion freely. I am taught religion and how to live my life better. Another thing that makes SMS special is the uniforms. Not every school uses uniforms. The reason we have uniforms is because, when people meet new people, the first thing they see is their appearance, such as clothes, hair, and shoes. Since we all wear the same clothes, it eliminates an awkward experience for new students. My advice to younger students is to do your homework the day it is assigned, and do not leave anything last minute. Also, be organized so you do not forget anything. SMS has helped me become closer to God, make new friends, and grow in my faith. Since I was not at SMS since preschool, nor did I know anyone, I had to make new friends. It was not hard to make friends because everyone was nice. Ever since I joined, I have been closer to God. I know the story of Jesus and have made most of my sacraments. Whenever I need guidance, I pray to God. If I need anything or have something I want Him to help me with, I pray. SMS helped me grow my faith in God.

Last Chance For Mother's Day Mass Cards

The Respect Life Ministry will be selling Mother's Day and Father's Day Mass cards after all Masses this weekend. We will be back in June to sell Father's Day cards. For $2.00 not only do you get a beautiful card to present to the women and men in your life, but their names will be entered into our Mass book and prayed for at Mass for a year. Masses can be bought for those living and also for the deceased. This is a major fundraiser for our group and allows us to continue our support of those organizations that are helping to promote life throughout the year. For those who miss us after Mass: If you would like to just have a Mass said for the man or woman in your life, just PRINT their name(s) on a sheet of paper indicating living or deceased and enclose it with a check made out to St Michael Respect Life for $2.00 per name and place it in the black drop box outside the office in an envelope addressed to Respect Life Ministry. Names must be turned in by May 8th to have them added to the Mass list for Mother's Day.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS MAY 2025 MONTHLY CHALLENGE

He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" (Gospel for May 4, Jn 21:17a)
When following the Resurrection, Jesus revealed Himself to His disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. Why did He ask Peter three times whether he loved Him? It has often been seen as a penance for Peter's earlier threefold denial of Christ. But perhaps, there's something more...possibly Jesus was pushing Peter to reflect more deeply on what it means to love Him. Sometimes we speak the words "I love you" by rote, without truly understanding their meaning. May we always be mindful of what it means to love someone truly and to love as Christ taught us.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

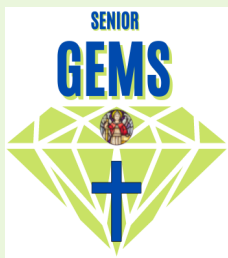

This month, I challenge you to identify one way you can demonstrate true love of God and neighbor. Then pray about how to concretely undertake that sacrificial act of love, and put it into action.

Questions for Reflection:

What does it mean for you to truly love Jesus? Do you know anyone — or is there a particular saint — who has shown you what true love looks like? What are some specific ways you can grow in your ability to truly love?

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

Partners in Christ's Mission

We invite you to join us in this year's CSA with the call to be Missionaries of the Eucharist. Our appeal goes beyond a request for support-it is a mission to walk together in faith, heart-to-heart, and to spread the transformative love of Christ through our diocesan ministries. Through your participation, you embrace the journey to encounter Christ in the Church and in each other, making a profound impact on the lives of countless Catholics in Northwest Indiana.

CSA is the primary source of funding to support diocesan-wide ministries in 59 parishes, 20 schools and numerous outreach agencies. Our goal is $123,108.64. Once that goal is reached, the monies come back to our parish. Please be as generous as you are able.

Thank you to all the parishioners who graciously donated appetizers, fruits, desserts, meats and your time to make our Easter Vigil reception so very successful! This reception celebrated our Catechumens that evening. We thank you for your continued kindness & generosity!

Please be aware that the south doors to St. Patrick Hall will not be in use for a few weeks due to the drapery hanging over the doors.

Stewardship in Action

Deepen your relationship with Mary, Mother of God, she loves you so. Attend Marian Devotions with a friend.

(Readings for May 11, 2025, The Fourth Sunday of Easter)

I. Acts of the Apostles 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas traveled to Antioch where they entered the synagogue to teach. Some Jews became their followers while others expelled them from the town. "So they shook the dust from their feet" and went on to Iconium.

II. Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

The author of Revelation had a vision of a large crowd of people from every nation and race, dressed in white robes and holding palms branches, standing before the Lamb.

III. John 10:27-30

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them and they follow me. I give them eternal life...No one can take them out of my hand. My Father...is greater than all...The Father and I are one."
