The Master Gardener. When I think of the Kingdom of Heaven, I first think of a place, a place that is not here. I don't think I am unique in this perspective. We think of the Kingdom of Heaven as a place above here, away from here, not like here. A place with puffy clouds perhaps, or pearly gates, or streets paved in gold, or an other worldly place.

It is curious to note that Jesus, in today's Gospel, speaks of the Kingdom of Heaven as if it is in the here and now. As if it is all around us, and we are somehow participating in it, all-be-it in a limited fashion. The Kingdom is like what we presently experience; the frustration of living our faith (trying to be faithful to God alone) in a place that has people who don't care about the things we care about. In all honesty, we would wish to live undisturbed by the weeds that impinge upon us, tempting us to become weedy. How much easier it would be to live with people who think like me, worship like me, value like me. But we don't, and somehow this too is part of the Kingdom.

This is part of the Kingdom, a necessary element of God's eternal plan. This is a mystery to us. Jesus also makes it clear that the weeds will be separated at the appointed time but for now we must live amongst these weeds. Indeed, if we are honest, each of us striving to be a productive plant, have some "weediness" in us. That might be the better place to start.

The Kingdom of God is all about patience, patience that allows us to let God weed out of us what is unruly and unproductive towards charity. If we can realize we need to be tended to by the Master Gardener, we can then begin to see how we must not separate ourselves for the more obvious weeds among us. We must take the example of the Master Gardener and help those weeds to find the path to become fruitful plantings.

The solution to holiness, a necessary reality to be admitted to the Kingdom, is not to be quarantined against those who are far from holiness and not presently interested in pursuing it. Rather, it is to live in the midst of the weeds and to act as an agent of change. An agent of change like the second example Jesus gives; to be the yeast in the middle of the field and to show forth Christ in our daily actions and attitude, to show that we can and do invite the Master Gardener to change us, to pull the weeds out of us.

So, the Kingdom of God is in the here and now. It is here, not fully realized, and yet our time here, in this place, is part of our experience of being in God's Kingdom. Helping to bring one weed from being a weed to becoming a fruitful plant would make God's Kingdom more realized. God is patient, The weeds challenge us and make us stronger. The weeds do not win. Jesus is clear that there is a separation. The time now is to allow God to work in us through His Sacraments, especially the Sacrament of Penance and the Eucharist. These are our gardening tools to make us stronger, fruitful plants and to help others be less a weed and more fruitful for the Kingdom.

Spiritual Adoption Program

Month 4

Thank you for praying for me. I'm bigger and stronger now. I'm about 6 inches long and I weigh 4 ounces. When mommy goes to the doctor, she can even listen to my heartbeat. I hope that one day I will run and play with friends like you.

Please remember to pray daily for your spiritually adopted baby and the baby's mother and father.

During your earthly life this spiritually adopted child of yours will be known only to God but in the world to come, it is hoped you will meet the child whose life was spared by your prayers and spend eternal happiness with them.

"Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion."

Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

THE WORD

Readings for July 30, 2023, the 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time)

I. Kings 3:5, 7-12

God appeared to Solomon in a dream and offered him whatever he desired. The king requested wisdom to govern Israel well. The Lord granted the request.

II. Romans 8:28-30

All things work for good for people who love God. The Lord God knows, predestines, justifies and glorifies people and calls them to share Christ's love.

III. Matthew 13:44-52

Jesus said that the reign of heaven is like a buried treasure and a fine pearl. Those who find it sell all they have to attain it. God is like a householder who brings forth good things, new and old.
