From the Pastor's Desk

The Ingredients Label. Did you ever read the label on a loaf of bread? It is quite an educational experience. Not only will you need glasses to see that small print, you'll need a dictionary to understand half of the words that are written. In this day and age, it behooves us to read those small ingredient labels because sometimes what is in an appetizing food item might have a bad effect on us. Looking beyond the nice packaging gives you and me, the buyers, a better idea of what we need in the food we purchase and what we don't need.

This is not new for Christians. We have been challenged to look beyond the food we eat since St. John wrote his Gospel account of Jesus around the year 90 AD. Jesus says to the crowds, who have had their fill of bread at the hands of Jesus, they should open their eyes and look beyond that multiplication of loaves. In today's Gospel, Jesus seems to say to them and us: "Look beyond the event and see what it points you towards." Well, we know the answer to that, it points us towards Jesus, the Living Bread.

However, we shouldn't become so sure of ourselves because we sometimes do not heed Jesus' words today. Jesus still says "look beyond the bread you eat." Look past the sign of consecrated bread and see what it signifies. It is Jesus the Christ: Jesus broken on the cross and so broken at the altar, Jesus poured out in His passion and so poured out into the sacred cups. This is all done so we can eat and drink.

Our eating and drinking is only the tip of the iceberg. We take the Body and Blood of Jesus into us so that the reverse may happen, that is, we don't consume Christ, Christ consumes us. Christ takes us in through this holy meal in order for us to see how our hurt, suffering, passion and brokenness are mixed with Jesus'. Indeed, in our communion, we are able to gain a new way to suffer, to endure our passion, to move beyond our hurt and to see our brokenness as the way to being made whole in Jesus.

There is more here than consecrated bread and wine; that is only the beginning. We must look beyond the consecrated bread we eat and the consecrated wine we drink and see that our body and blood is mingled with the Savior's Body and Blood so we can have life in and through Him. And this life you and I receive — like Jesus', we must give to others. We are united with Christ to be Christ to friends, neighbors, relatives and even enemies so that we and they can be healed and made whole in the true Bread and Wine of Life, Jesus.

“A LOOK BACK IN TIME”

The 1930's, 1940's and early 1950's were periods of growth for the parish. When the new church opened in 1930, the parish had 90 families and 400 members. In 1940, the parish had 134 families and 585 members. In 1947, the parish had 140 families and celebrated 40 baptisms. In 1950, the parish had 183 families. Parishioners worshipped in a redecorated church starting in 1948, and the church basement was excavated in 1952. Despite not having a parish festival for much of this era, the parish was virtually debt-free, in part due to the practice of pew rent which was discontinued in the late 1950s.

In honor of Fr. Marty's 40th Anniversary to the Priesthood, we are sharing some unique and interesting tidbits of information about him.

Getting to Know Fr. Marty

Fr. Marty became curious about religious life at an early age but was still determining whether he would become a priest after his second year of graduate school. During this slow discernment process of high school, college, and graduate (theology) school, he carefully chose classes that would best prepare him for the priesthood, just in case. These included speech, sociology, and debate. Most of his classmates from high school seminary did not enter religious life. About 4 or 5 chose priesthood as their vocation, and the others went on to college and entered other fields. In college, he majored in Modern European History and minored in Sociology.

What if he had decided not to be a priest? Fr. Marty may have enjoyed a career as a history teacher or being involved in theater design/lighting.

A Memorable Day in Indy

We are sharing a few quotes from our Eucharistic Congress experience in Indianapolis, as we heard amazing speakers and the famous Christian musician, Matt Maher, to worshipping our Savior with many thousands of Catholic brothers and sisters, and to the joy and love that was felt throughout the day. We will never forget....

"I'd say my overall experience was very exciting from seeing all the different people in the diocese celebrate an event like this. What touched me most was when we all gathered in Lucas Oil Stadium to witness the Eucharist." (Jacob - teen)

"I really enjoyed being able to go the Eucharistic Congress! I think what was most touching to me is how so many people were present and connected through worship. I'm really glad I got to learn about a saint that I had never heard of before and future events that will be held to help teens in the Catholic community grow closer to God. I thought the lightning in the stadium was really cool and I am so thankful that I could attend!" (Faustina - teen)

"60,000 people adoring Jesus..... AWESOME!" (Mike - adult)

WE RUN/ WALK FOR THOSE WE LOST & TO HONOR OUR AMERICAN VETERANS

Tom Campbell

The St. Michael Feast Day 5K (Run/Walk) is a tradition that commemorates the memory of parishioners who lost their lives battling cancer or other debilitating illnesses. Although our hearts may never fully heal, we can honor them at this Feast Day event. Thomas Campbell, a lifetime parishioner, member of the Music Ministry, husband, and father of two beautiful girls, was a proud Marine who passed away from cancer. This year, we are excited to honor his legacy by donating a portion of the proceeds to the American Veterans Collection. As a veteran, Thomas understood the difference a service dedicated to improving veterans' lives could make. We Run/Walk for those we Lost & to Honor our American Veterans. All are welcome to run, walk, volunteer, or donate to the DONOR WALL in memory of a veteran who has passed. Thank you for supporting this year's cause.

THE WORD

(Readings for August 11, 2024, Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

I. 1 Kings 19:4-8

Elijah grew tired as he walked in the desert. An angel appeared to him, and gave him food and drink. After that, Elijah walked forty more days to the mountain of the Lord.

II. Ephesians 4:30-5:2

Paul encouraged the Ephesians to replace harsh words with kindness for each other. He wrote, "Be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed Himself over for us."

III. John 6:41-51

Jesus is the bread from heaven. No one can go to the Father except through the Son. Anyone who believes and eats Jesus' bread will have everlasting life.
