

WELCOME TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

A hand is shown holding the bottom left corner of an American flag. The flag is waving and features the stars and stripes. In the background, a large firework is exploding, creating a bright, starburst pattern against a dark sky. The overall scene is festive and patriotic.

From the Pastor's Desk

Happy Endings is as American as Apple Pie. In the revision of the story of the Wizard of Oz, the ending is changed. Those of us who grew up with the movie version with Judy Garland know that at the end of the movie Dorothy wields a bucket of water to save the scarecrow from burning and at the same time douses the wicked witch of the West. The water does not cleanse her but melts her instead. But apparently this ending is too sad for the writers of Wicked. Why should we judge the Wicked Witch? After all, there might be extenuating circumstances that led her to be wicked. Today, what we have seen as bad has now been rewritten to be good and the good is presented as the real evil. There has to be a happier ending to the Dorothy story. So, the Witch runs off instead with the Scarecrow to live happily ever after.

The experience of this new musical is age old and we see it in today's Gospel. Peter is like the modern audience; any hint of tragedy is not acceptable. Jesus' end must be happy. This estimation by Peter is one made on human standards. For Peter and his fellow disciples, there can be no talk of failure; that would be disheartening.

Like Peter, you and I also get caught up in this expectation of happy endings – always. But we know, as did he, that our need for happy endings in this life really takes us away from the eternal happiness of the life for which we are destined. Indeed, the many things that this world counts for loss are really gain. The tragic happenings that come into everyone's life and the sadness that every human being experiences is what makes us long for, and prepare ourselves for, the mountain on which there will be no more tears or weeping, sadness or separation.

Jesus tells us forcefully, like Peter, not to be fooled by this world's veneer of happy endings. To see a happy outcome as a right in this life or to feel it must be so or all is lost is to fall into the camp of the great tempter, Satan. Satan wants us to think that happiness here is the most important thing. But for you and I to strive to be always satisfied and happy here, inevitably leads us to deprive someone else of their happiness. Satan is not stupid, because if we are fat and happy, we really don't care about those who are not, too bad for them!

This is the reason Jesus is so forceful in His response to Peter; "Get behind me, Satan!" We too need to be just as forceful. For if Peter's unknowing temptation to Jesus could have jeopardized the salvation of all humanity, how much more can this type of temptation deprive us of the salvation Jesus has already gained for us?

Keeping Busy

St. Michael's Wheelchair Ramp Ministry has installed it's 59th and 60th Wheelchair Ramps over the past three weeks.

Pictured left is Tanya Huston with wedges so she can have egress for her husband who is wheelchair bound.

The apartment complex where she lives would not allow for the typical aluminum ramp installation, so curb wedges were purchased to allow her to scale the two steps to get her husband to the parking lot. These wedges are very light and will allow for easy carrying and placement. Ramp #60 was installed for Diane Del Gatto in Munster. Pictured right is Jim Koeling with Diane. He asked if he could push her in the wheelchair since he had never transported someone before and wanted personal experience at how it was accomplished.

If you would like to participate in the St. Michael's

Wheelchair Ramp Ministry in any way, please contact the St. Michael's parish office at 219-322-4505. If you know anyone who may be in need of our services, please have them contact Catholic Charities at outreach@catholic-charities.org or call 219-886-3549 and ask for Jessa Conn.

THE WORD

(Readings for September 10, 2023, the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time)

I. Ezekiel 33:7-9

God called the prophet as a watchman for the house of Israel. Unless those called by God try to turn the wicked away from evil, they will not be saved. When holy people speak up on God's behalf, they are saved.

II. Romans 13:8-10

All commandments are summed up in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law."

III. Matthew 18:15-20

Jesus said, "If two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."
