From the Pastor's Desk

What Counts in the End? How do I count the days of my life? Do I count how much money I make? Do I add up the pleasures I feel? Do I keep track of the power I have acquired? Do I simply move from one year to the next counting birthdays?

God longs to teach us how to count our days. The Scripture is clear on this point. Real wisdom comes in counting each new dawn, not as a chance to make more, spend more, or indulge more, but as an opportunity to find God's kindness in others and in my own actions. Each day is filled with many blessings. Indeed, even our work, no matter if that is at home, in school, the factory or the office, is a daily participation in God's divine life.

It is only when we rejoice in each moment of the life that God has given us that we can understand the commandments of the Lord recounted in the Gospel today; first and foremost, "You shall not kill." Indeed, most of the commandments can be summed up in this one. For to envy, covet, gossip, be unfaithful, deny God respect, dishonor our parents are all forms of killing. Certainly, to treat our own bodies as if they were not of God, indulging in behaviors (our passions) which destroy our spirit even though they promise us fulfillment, is to kill. In a way, it is like suicide.

When we do something over and over again, we are trained. This is the premise for training our young how to eat, dress and clean themselves. Training does not stop with these normal habits. We are trained how to think and reason and how to judge the right from the wrong by many images and words which are often at odds with each other. Games have been used for ages to help train young people, like the game of "LIFE" or the game of "Monopoly" or even a game of tic-tac-toe. Games played over and over have an impact on us. Gaming with the up close and personal experience of killing another, as some very popular video games do, cannot certainly help us, especially our young people, to appreciate life. Remember, what gets heard or seen the most, usually wins out.

The "culture of death" that St. Pope John Paul II so accurately pointed out to us, trains us, young and old, by desensitizing us to death, not just physical death but the death of our true freedom and spirit too. Respect is lost for others, for their worth, and consequently, it is lost upon us as well; thus allowing the excuse to behave in any way that is most pleasing to my passions. Our very entertainment, gaming, movies, TV shows and music, make us so accustomed to death that it is not odd that our society passively condones or even supports killing the innocent, the unborn, the infirmed, the unwanted or even the guilty. It simply becomes just another "reasoned" decision to my own advantage.

Though the child in the womb is not convenient, you shall not kill. Though the scan shows the possibility of handicap, you shall not kill. Though the old man is sick and shares in Christ's pain, you shall not kill. Though some may look to end it all and seek our help and approval, you shall not kill. Though the convicted man has killed, you shall not kill. The command is clear, there is no room for ambiguity.

What counts? Living a life every day that seeks to promote LIFE by seeking God's blessings and passing them on. Passing on life, not death, that is what counts. Pursue the words and images that train us to see life and sift out those images and words that lead us down the path of death. This is a purposeful action on our part. Decide to watch and listen to those things that point you closer to the God of life. Decide everyday for life. Don't throw away what God has given.

A Request from Bishop McClory. Bishop McClory has asked that St. Michael's host a monthly Sunday Mass in Vietnamese. The Mass will be celebrated at 6:00 PM on the first Sunday of the month. We hosted our first Mass last week. Over 200 people attended. I can attest that many of them speak very little English. So, this is a great comfort for them to attend Mass, at least monthly, in their mother tongue. Many of those in attendance, are parishioners and can be often seen at our regular Sunday Masses. Also, the 6:00 PM time allows many who work in the beauty industry as manicurists, etc. to attend, as they often work till 5:00 PM on Sundays. Anyone may attend this monthly Mass. Even though I do not speak Vietnamese, I was truly moved by their participation and piety. This is a credit to our parish which has worked very hard to be a welcoming Catholic community.

SMS & Faith Formation News

Michelle Wacnik, Principal

Kimberley Hoogeveen, DRE

In Pastoral work, it is always important to make Christian families part of the process of initiation. First Holy Communion is a key moment, not only for the individual receiving the Sacrament, but also for the entire family, which should be supported in its educational role by the whole parish community.

This Sunday we will celebrate with a Mass to start a new program, “Do This in Memory,” for such families. At the 11:30 AM Mass, the children who are preparing for the Sacrament of First Holy Communion and their families will begin to participate in the liturgy through the “Mass of Enrollment.”

Each child will begin to experience “Whole Faith Community,” which goes far beyond the day of First Holy Communion. This new and exciting program will help the families participate more fully in the celebration of the Eucharist!

Two Ministries Help Out at the Same Place

Members of St Michael's Rebuilding Hope Mission Team volunteered at Shady Oaks Summer Camp for those with disabilities in Homer Glen, Illinois back in September. Members finished a project that was started last month which included drywall repair, painting the second level, the kitchen, and laying vinyl planking throughout the whole lower level. Volunteers received donuts and coffee, pizza for lunch, and a "T" shirt.

The first four pictures are from RHMT. The last two are from the Wheelchair Ramp Ministry.

Members of St. Michael's Wheelchair Ramp Ministry installed its 80th ramp at Shady Oaks. The installation first required the removal of the existing wood ramp. There were volunteers from St. Michael, St. John and Holy Name to help with the installation. If you know of anyone who may need our assistance, please have them contact Catholic Charities at outreach@catholic-charities.org or call 219-886-3549 and ask for Daniela Ocanas. If you would like to participate in either of these ministries, please contact the St Michael's parish office at 219-322-4505.

III. Mark 10:35-45

Jesus replied to James and John, “The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give His life as a ransom for many.”
