From the Pastor's Desk

Where Life Finds Real Meaning! We often think that meaning in life comes from our work or our Relationships with spouse, children or friends. Our work or relationships certainly help mold us, giving us some meaning. But the depth of who we really are is rarely realized without adversity or suffering. In the game of life, there are no “chance cards” that direct us to proceed directly to “home” without the possibility of disappointment or tragedy.

In today's Gospel, James and John are rather bold in their request. They ask Jesus to give them the best seats in the house in the kingdom of heaven. Perhaps, they thought they deserved a “chance card.” Jesus' response was as equally bold as their question. He asked them if they were willing to undergo what He was to endure — to drink the cup from which He would drink. Their response probably made in haste, so much did they not understand, was a firm “YES!”

This cup Jesus was speaking of was that of the suffering servant. The suffering servant is the one crushed in his/her infirmity; giving his/her life as an offering of obedience, so that the will of the Lord might be revealed in him/her. Jesus was the prime example of Isaiah's suffering servant. If James and John could drink of this cup, be a suffering servant in the pattern of Jesus, they would certainly have a place in the kingdom of God.

The same holds true today. Nothing of value comes without difficulties, heartaches, losses or pain. Jesus is there to help us recognize the value of suffering in our lives and in the lives of others. We have to be careful not to totally anesthetize the pains of this world, but to gain from our difficulties, sufferings and sacrifices; courage and trust that no matter what, God will always carry us. Our sacrifices are always joined to the cross of Christ and because they are joined to Him they can have the potential to bring us new meaning in our lives.

The world sees this upside down. Sacrifice is rarely held up as a good thing except in matters of national security. How can a person sacrifice if they do not learn how to do it in less dramatic circumstances? Indeed, how can one learn Christian sacrifice, which is to give purely out of trust that God will provide? We learn this like we learn everything, by doing. Perhaps the unbridled enthusiasm of James and John is the best way. Dive in and say “yes, I can.”

Please pray this prayer for our country everyday until election day:

O Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, at this most critical time, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care. Most Holy Mother, we beg you to reclaim this land for the glory of your Son. Overwhelmed with the burden of the sins of our nation, we cry to you from the depths of our hearts and seek refuge in your motherly protection. Look down with mercy upon us and touch the hearts of our people. Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Free us from the falsehoods that lead to the evil of abortion and threaten the sanctity of marriage and family life. Grant our country the wisdom to proclaim that God's law is the foundation on which this nation was founded, and that He alone is the True Source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. O Merciful Mother, give us the courage to reject the culture of death and the strength to build a new Culture of Life. Amen.

Thank you for your generosity!

Effective April 2020: In an effort to provide accurate weekly collection totals, there is a six week lag in bulletin reporting. The timing of when weekly collections are received changed in early 2020, due to Covid. We went from 90% received on Sunday, to 30%. We have gradually moved up to 70%, but feel it's best to hold off on reporting until the majority of envelopes are received.

THE WORD

(Readings for October 27th, Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

I. Jeremiah 31:7-9

The Lord said, I will bring back the blind and the lame; "I will lead them to brooks of water."

II. Hebrews 5:1-6

The one who said to Christ, "You are my son: this day I have begotten you" also said, "You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek."

III. Mark 10:46-52

Jesus asked, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to Him, "Master, I want to see."
