From the Pastor's Desk

When is enough, enough? The process of gaining as many things as you want, as many experiences, objects and desires, leads to wanting more. It is a basic law of acquisition. People who earn $175,000 a year still find themselves in debt as much or even more than those who earn $45,000 a year. Indeed, someone who makes six figures cannot imagine living on half of that, while someone who earns $50,000 can't imagine living on less. We all think we can use a little bit more. The basic law of acquisition is that enough is never enough and more never really satisfies.

Thus, the lurching in the market and the delicacy of our economy concerns us more and more. It is not that we should be unconcerned about the economy, but that we should keep it in proper perspective. If I am attached to the material things I have and desire more, a hiccup in the market could easily lead to personal depression and loss of hope. But if I can see all I have as gift and some of that being far more important than other parts of it then I can keep a hold of hope; not hope in the fluctuating markets but hope in the One God that does not falter or devalue. This is the point of today's gospel.

The tenants in the vineyard, presented in the Gospel today, were given a generous portion of the harvest, but enough was not enough. So, to acquire more, they first beat the master's servants and then killed them and then killed the son. Yet, what did they actually acquire? The master's rage. In their attempt to "have it all" (a stated goal of life these days), they lost the little they had. The law of acquisition leads to loss.

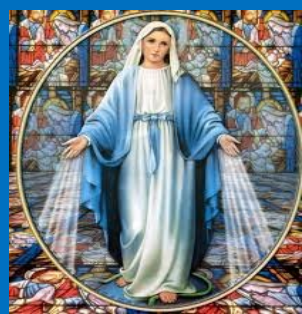

For you and me to gain so many things, we have to lose other less obvious things that root our lives with one another and within ourselves. We lose belief in strength gained from suffering, a truth that stretches far back into our common past. We lose confidence in God's providence for us assuming decisions of life and death; deciding when a child is best brought into the world or when we want to leave this world ala "mercy killing." We lose genuine innocence as we sell our individuality to own the latest fashions in clothes, lifestyles or SUVs. We end up losing ourselves in our mad rush to acquire as much as we can.

The one with the most toys at the end does not win anything except bonus points on his/her credit card. What can you give away this week and what can you do without? Jesus implores us to use the same energy we use to acquire things to search for Him in the things we already have — our family and friends, the Holy Scripture, the gift of the Eucharist and the Liturgy, in the beauty of this planet and the rugged beauty of the people who inhabit it.

That is why generosity is so essential for us to be able to grow in the Christian Life. Being generous is a challenge to trust in God's generosity. The most essential quality for a Christian to have is trust. Trust allows us to put God first. Trust allows us to care for the poor. Trust allows us to be open to God's will. Trust allows us to sacrifice for a greater good. Trust allows us to be saved. Without trust in God's providence, salvation is impossible because we do not save ourselves.

Mark Your Calendars NOW! Next year our feast day, September 29th, falls on a Sunday. This is most propitious as we will be celebrating our 150th year next September 29, 2024. A once-in-a-life-time celebration is being planned. Mark your calendar now in your Android or iPhone, You will not want to miss this one!

This very special Mass, and the reception to follow, will be the event of the decade. You and your children will not see it again for 50 years or more. So mark your calendars now. Invite any of our parishioners you know who have moved over the years to come back and celebrate with us. Be present for this special event of Thanksgiving for 150 years of faith, fellowship and service.

THIRD GRADERS START A NEW RELIGIOUS ADVENTURE!

In pastoral work, it is always important to make Christian Families part of the process of initiation. First Holy Communion is a key moment, not only for the individual receiving the Sacrament, but also for the entire family, which should be supported in its educational role by the whole parish community.

Today, October 8th, we celebrate with a Mass to start a new program for such Families, "Do This in Memory." At the 11:30 AM Mass, the children who are preparing for the Sacrament of First Holy Communion and their families will begin to participate in the liturgy through the "Mass of Enrollment."

Each child will begin to experience "Whole Faith Community" which goes far beyond the day of First Holy Communion. This new and exciting program will help the families participate more fully in the celebration of the Eucharist!

Faith Formation is Off to a Great Start this Year!

- Catechists gathered in August to learn more about Communication in the classroom, as they prepared for their students.
- Catechists helped at the Ministry Fair held in September to answer any questions or inquiries regarding the Faith Formation Program.
- Sunday Family Program - Fr. Marty and Fr. Robert led us in an opening day prayer as classes began!

Stewardship by the Book

In the Gospel today, the owner of the vineyard sent messengers to collect his share of the harvest from the tenant farmers, but there was not a single good steward on the property! God is the owner, we are the tenants. What sort of stewards are we?

SPONSOR(S) NEEDED

A sponsor or sponsors are needed for a family from the Ukraine to come to the United States as refugees. There is no financial assistance nor accommodations required, just a minimal initial time commitment. This would help a family leave a current war zone. The family consists of an older married couple, a mom with two children ages 18 and 10 and a husband to person listed prior. The family does not need to be brought over all in one group with one sponsor. Please contact Andrew Kovacs at andrew.s.kovacs@gmail.com for more details. This would be using the "Uniting for Ukraine" program. The role of a sponsor is to assure the government that they are not being left on their own with no support structures. There is no financial cost nor is there any time commitment other than the sponsorship paperwork.

THE WORD

(Readings for October 15, 2023, 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time)

I. Isaiah 25:6-10a

Isaiah prophesied, "On this mountain the Lord of hosts will provide...a feast of rich food and choice wines...The Lord God will wipe away the tears from every face...The hand of the Lord will rest on this mountain."

II. Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

Paul wrote, "I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry." When people share each other's hardships, God supplies their needs fully in Christ Jesus.

III. Matthew 22:1-14

Jesus likened God's reign to a great wedding banquet that a king gave for his son. Many were invited; some ignored the invitation. One guest was thrown out for disrespectful dress. In God's reign, "many are invited, but few are chosen."
