From the Pastor's Desk

The End is Near? I phrase this as a question, not a statement. It is very clear from today's Gospel reading that although Jesus felt the end time would be soon, even He was not certain. Jesus Himself told His followers that such knowledge was the Father's alone. This might seem like a conflict of interest to us who maintain that Jesus is fully God and fully man. However, we must remember that this truth does not preclude the fact that Jesus' humanity and the uncertainty that accompanies humanity was essential in God's plan. Trying to understand and express this mystery always leads to such difficulties.

What is most important is Jesus' teaching that only God knows the time and the real circumstances by which the world will be consumed. You and I must remember that this consummation is not utter destruction but utter transformation; the transformation into being made one, in God. This is an event that we pine for, not one that we dread.

Many have tried to name this end time; remember Y2K, this was soon followed by a movie about the Mayan calendar that supposedly named the date of 2012. Such speculation makes for good movies but does not help us live our lives as people ready for the coming of our Lord Jesus in glory. If we look for an exact time, we miss the point. The point is not when it will happen, but the result; the result being for God's faithful ones, the fulfillment of all our hopes and dreams.

The scripture readings today come to us as we prepare for Thanksgiving. The harvest of our land should always remind us of the harvest that our actions reap. When we contemplate the harvest of our actions during this past year, have they prepared us and God's world for the GREAT HARVEST we hear about in the readings today?

All of us are farmers entrusted with the seed of God's forgiveness, tenderness and tolerance. This seed is planted in us at baptism and fertilized year after year as we celebrate the mysteries of Christ's life; His birth, ministry, passion, death, Resurrection, Ascension and the gift of the Holy Spirit. We do more than mark our year with these celebrations. Like butter on warm toast, God longs to seep into our lives, through our yearly celebrations, softening us and making us ready.

The more God seeps into our lives, the more ready we become for the GREAT HARVEST. Although we cannot be certain of the time, you and I can be certain of the outcome. The GREAT HARVEST will give way to a Thanksgiving dinner with more people than we can now imagine.

Unbound This week we welcome a guest homilist to speak to us about the important work of UNBOUND. A Catholic organization that guided by lay Catholics grounded in the Gospel call to put the needs of the marginalized and vulnerable first. They build relationships of mutual respect that bridge cultural, economic and religious divides.

They work from the understanding that the surest path out of poverty is a self-directed one. Sponsored individuals and families use our support to work towards goals like education, dignified housing, better nutrition and developing livelihoods.

Our generosity goes a long way. Their highly rated stewardship allows over 90% of funds to go directly to programs.

Father Martin Holler, a priest of the Diocese of Steubenville, Ohio, served as pastor at Christ the King University Parish and in campus ministry at Ohio University. He taught seminary philosophy. Now in retirement, he makes annual service trips to a small school in Kenya and preaches for Unbound. He is inspired by the 'Oscar Romero Prayer' of Bishop Ken Intener: "We cannot do everything and there is a sense of liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something and to do it very well." Father Holler enjoys reading walking, keeping fit, cooking and visiting family and friends.

Formatio

Michelle Biscan, Principal

Kimberley Hoogeveen, DRE

I started attending SMS when I was in 7th grade. I plan on going to Andrean High School. I play volleyball for SMS, and I also play volleyball outside of school. I aspire to play volleyball for Andrean High School next year. Volunteer work is something I enjoy doing over the summer, when I don't have many plans. I typically help with the St. Michael Parish, and I volunteered for vacation bible school last summer. I enjoy acts of charity and helping others. One of the many things that makes SMS special is the community of students and teachers. When I was new to the school, I never felt unwelcome or left out; it felt like I had been there for years. If I ever needed help with anything, I have always had supportive teachers to help me. My advice to younger students is to put your all into everything you do, so you can be successful. SMS has helped me grow as a friend and family member by teaching me to be like Jesus and to serve others. I have grown as a student at SMS because the teachers helped me set high-expectations for myself. I am growing as a disciple of Jesus by working towards becoming the best version of myself that God created me to be. During the challenges of this school year, I am still trying to grow in faith with God.

The confirmation candidates and their sponsors share in a Blessing mass where the Confirmandi received a red candle to signify the beginning of their confirmation preparations!

FAMILY CHRISTMAS CARD SALE

As in past years the Respect Life Ministry will be selling Feast of the Holy Family Mass cards and as we have learned from our past sales, many people want to get *their Christmas cards out right after Thanksgiving so we will begin selling cards after Mass the weekend of November 23rd/24th and will continue until December 8th. We will have 2 tables in the gathering space, one at each end until December 7th and on December 8th we will be in St. Patrick Hall where we will have Breakfast with St. Nicholas and Baby Jesus after all Masses. As in past years, we will be selling individual cards for $2 or cards in packs of 10 for $15. Although the main focus of having these cards is being able to send a beautiful card to your family and friends, it also means having their names entered into our Book of Intentions and prayed for at Mass on the Feast of the Holy Family, December 29th and all throughout the year. Forms will be available to enter the names of those you are sending cards to and they can be dropped off in the Gathering Space during the month of December. Exact change will be greatly appreciated or your personal check made out to St Michael's Respect Life. Proceeds from the sale help us support the many organizations that need our help.

> As always, thank you for your support and God Bless You.

OLIVE WOOD SALES

A beautiful collection of hand carved olive wood religious articles from the Holy Land, will be for sale in St. Patrick Hall on Nov. 23rd & 24th. They make excellent gifts for Christmas and other special events. The profit support the Catholic families who carved these articles in Bethlehem and Jerusalem. Supporting these Catholic families in the Holy Land is very important at this time because they are protecting the holy churches for all of us. I encourage you to stop by and support our suffering Catholic Families in the Holy Land.

THE WORD

(Readings for November 24, 2024, Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe)

Daniel had a vision and saw "one like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven...His dominion is an everlasting dominion."

II. Revelation 1:5-8

The firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth has made us a kingdom, priests for his God and Father.

III. Mark 11:9, 10

When Pilate asked Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus replied, "You say I am a king."
