

Martha, do you believe?

This is a question for all of us in our present situation. Jesus asks us to believe that out of the confusion of this time he can still work, he can still bring the ultimate good, life itself, to realization. In our daily prayer we should be calling upon him like Martha. This is certainly a time to “exercise” our faith. Faith that, even in the face of death, God still triumphs. Even more powerful is that he makes it possible for you and me to share in his triumph. Baptism makes us immune to eternal death and regenerates our very bodies making us fit for life in God.

ST. MICHAEL PARISH

From the Pastor's Desk

Being Led. For the last four Sundays, we have been concluding our Sunday Mass with the song, Jerusalem, My Destiny. We pledge our hearts to the Way of Jesus, to follow him to Jerusalem AND beyond! With the events of the last month, we realize that getting to the “beyond” piece is not an easy road.

In the first week, as we began Lent with great zeal and confidence, little did we know that by this fifth week of Lent things would be so terribly different. Yet, that difference is really in our expectations of how we should be able to do what we wish when we wish. Whether it's the freedom to pray when we want or the freedom to go wherever we wish when we wish. You and I are certainly on a journey to Jerusalem that reminds us of the Lord's words to Peter at the seashore after the Resurrection. Even then, with the Passion behind them, Peter is told by Jesus: “Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go.”

This is, maybe, how you feel. We are being led in a direction by events beyond our ultimate control. But our being led does not have to be the stress factor it is for unbelievers. Rather, we can take hope in the knowledge that God always does the “final” leading.

God has not brought this virus to blossom to punish us and God does not intend for us to suffer. Rather, He can transform the weakness of our humanity, in this life, to respond not with fear, but, with kindness, charity and prayer for the people near to us and those we cannot physically touch. In addition, God can even transform our mortal weakness so much so that we can be confident of a new life that bears fruit in us even now and helps us to confidently approach the throne of God when we are called home.

In addition to calling upon the prayer of Our Lady of Lourdes, I would also encourage everyone to seek the powerful assistance of our patron, St. Michael the Archangel. To assist in this, printed below are prayers that are traditionally assigned to these powerful patrons. Also pray in your own words too. Don't be afraid to ask them to help you, your family and your neighbors.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness
and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him we humbly pray;
and do thou,

O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan
and all the evil spirits
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Oh ever immaculate Virgin, Mother of Mercy,
Health of the Sick, Refuge of Sinners, Comfortess of the Afflicted,

you know my wants, my troubles, my sufferings.

Look upon me
with mercy.

When you appeared in the grotto of Lourdes,
you made it a privileged sanctuary where you
dispense your favors,
and where many
sufferers have obtained the cure of their infirmities, both spiritual and corporal.

I come, therefore, with unbounded confidence to implore your maternal intercession.

My loving Mother, obtain my request.

I will try to imitate your virtues
so that I may one day share your company and bless you in eternity. Amen.

THE WORD

(Readings for April 5, 2020, Palm Sunday)

I. Isaiah 50:4-7

The servant of the Lord God was rebuffed but did not turn back; he was beaten and spat upon. The suffering one knew the Lord God was with him.

II. Philippians 2:6-11

Christ was in the form of God but did not consider equality with God a thing to be grasped. He emptied himself, took the form of a slave, and was obedient unto death! Therefore, God exalted him, and all proclaim him Lord.

III. Matthew 26:14-27:66

The Passion of the Lord.

Please send in the envelope that was put in the bulletin last week. It's very important we get your updated information to send you upcoming bulletins/information by email. You can even put it in the dropbox set up on the west side of the parish office. Thank you.
