The Church Makes Churches. On November 3, 1999 we dedicated our new worship space, and on September 29, 2022 we blessed the building again after extensive work which necessitated our being out of the building for several months. I purposefully have avoided the word “church” in the previous sentence to remind us that the word “church,” which we often associate with the building where we worship, means nothing unless the “Church” – God’s baptized people – meets there to worship. So important is our building to our gathering as Christ’s body that we ascribe to it the name we ourselves bear, Church. The Church is a “base camp” for us from which we are strengthened, by Word and Sacrament to do God’s work in our everyday life in the world.

Today we commemorate the dedication of a church building far older than ours, and far more universal in its significance for us. In a sense, we celebrate the dedication of the “mother” Church of all Church communities and their buildings throughout Roman Catholicism. Today’s feast recalls the dedication of the church of St. John Lateran; named such because it was built on a hilly piece of land donated by the Laterani family. This is the Cathedral Church of the Diocese of Rome, episcopal seat of the Bishop of Rome, the Pope, and so the first church of all the churches of all Roman or Latin Rite Catholics.

The Church of Rome, the baptized people of God in that city, has many places for worship and devotion, the most famous being St. Peter’s Basilica. But this is not the Cathedral. The Cathedral is St. John’s on the Lateran Hill. St. John’s was dedicated on 9 November 324 by Pope Sylvester I. It was the residence of the Bishop of Rome, the Pope, until 1309 when the Pope fled the city for Avignon, France. This period is known in our history as the “Babylonian Captivity” of the papacy.

Pope Clement V made the initial move out of Rome because of the dangerous situation in the city which was fueled by the ambition of the Holy Roman Emperor, Henry VII, who sought to conquer by force the city and surrounding regions of Rome. The King of France, too, had a hand in keeping the popes in Avignon well beyond their original intent. Finally, in 1378 Gregory the XI, motivated by the earnest pleas of St. Catherine of Siena moved the papacy back to Rome but to a new residence. However, St. John’s still remained the Cathedral of the Diocese, and is to this day.

Because the commemoration of our parish Church’s dedication is so close, we celebrate both together. Many of you can remember the great joy that night back in 1999, so you can imagine the immense joy in Rome in 324, too. Almost everyone who visits our worship space comments on its peacefulness and simple beauty, and it is good to take healthy pride in our church building. But, it is even more important to take healthy pride in our work as a Church, as a community of believers. It is our work done both communally and personally to grow deeper in our relationship with Christ and to live His forgiveness and charity that makes our church building beautiful beyond the wood and stone.

This is of particular importance today as all the parishes in the Diocese are working through a process of reorganization to not only provide for the spiritual, sacramental and pastoral needs of Catholics in Northwest Indiana, but to also secure the Church-at-large for the years ahead. This will bring together Catholics to be a more vibrant sign of God’s presence and a more inviting environment to welcome new enquirers who seek to be one with us in the Roman Catholic Church.

As we commemorate the dedication of these two great buildings given over to God for His use and purpose, so let us re-dedicate ourselves this week to give ourselves over to God’s purpose more and more each day. A purpose that finds security not in our buildings but in our communion with one another. A communion that trusts in the guidance of the Holy Spirit, especially when times seem difficult.

Pastoral work is always important to make Christian Families part of the process of initiation. First Holy Communion is a key moment, not only for the individual receiving the sacrament, but also for the entire family, which should be supported in its educational role by the whole parish community. We are asking you the parish, to help support the children making their 1st Communion, by taking a NAME CARD of one of the children, and pray for them throughout their time of preparation. Name Cards will be available in the vestibule after all Masses on November 8 & 9.

ST. MICHAEL SCHOOL WARRIOR OF THE WEEK ADRIANNA DABROWSKI

My name is Adriana Dabrowski, and I started going to SMS in 5th grade. When I first came here, I didn't really know what to expect, but everyone was so nice to me and made me feel welcome right away. My teacher helped me adjust, and I made friends very fast. Now that I've been here for a while, SMS feels like my second home. I've learned so much, not just about school subjects, but also about faith, kindness, and being a good person.

When I graduate from SMS, I will most likely go to Andrean High School. I'm looking forward to all the new things that high school will bring. New classes, new sports, and new extracurricular activities. I'm also looking forward to meeting new people and becoming an even better Catholic. But somehow, I know that I will miss SMS so much because this school has given me so many memories and good people in my life.

At SMS, I've been busy with a lot of enjoyable and meaningful activities. I've participated in Student Council and Altar Serving. Besides those, I've spent a lot of time playing sports like softball and basketball. I enjoy them both because they taught me how to be focused and work hard. Softball helps me learn to be patient and a team player, especially batting or playing in the field. Basketball gets me moving and feeling self-assured on and off the court. I like being a team player, cheering my teammates on, celebrating wins with them, and learning from our mistakes. Participating in these sports has made me a stronger leader, a better listener, and a good friend to others.

What is unique about SMS is the fact that everyone genuinely cares about each other. The teachers at this school don't just want you to pass, they want you to grow as a human being too. They really do take the time to help you understand things and support you on bad days. I think SMS is special too because of the faith of our community of believers. We go to Mass as a group, we pray as a group, and we talk about how we can be more like Jesus on a daily basis.

My message to younger students would be to enjoy every second at SMS because before you know it, it will all be over. Don't be too afraid of new experiences because even when they seem a little intimidating at first, they can result in great experiences. Be nice to everyone because you never know what the other person may be going through. Also, obey your teachers because they do care about you. Above all, have faith in God and believe that he's always with you no matter what.

SMS has taught me to become so many different kinds of people; as a student, family member, friend, and follower of Jesus, more especially during the hard moments. I learned to be patient, compassionate, and gentle with other people. As a friend, I always try to listen more and be there when other people need me to be there. As a family member, I've learned to help out more at home and show appreciation to my parents and brother. As a student, I've learned how to stay organized, manage my time, and never give up, even when things get tough. Most importantly, as a disciple of Jesus, I've learned how to keep my faith strong, pray more often, and trust in God's plan for me.

Looking back on my years at SMS, I'm very thankful for everything I've experienced here. I've grown in my faith, made lifelong friendships, and learned lessons that I'll carry with me forever. SMS has truly helped me become a better person, and I'm proud to be part of this amazing school and parish community.

The Word

(Readings for November 16th, 2025, 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time ) reflections...

I. Malachi 3:19-20a

The sun of justice shines with healing warmth on those who walk in the Lord, but evildoers face a blazing oven, for the day of the Lord is coming.

II. 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Paul urged members of the church in Thessalonica to conduct themselves in a way that befits Christ's followers. He asked them to work in the community and earn their keep.

III. Luke 21:5-19

Jesus urged patient endurance for His followers when they face trial or contradiction. He consoled them and calmed their worries in the midst of war, earthquake, disease and hunger.

St. Jude, Pray for Us.

Most holy Apostle, St Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus,
the Church honors and invokes you universally,
as the patron of hopeless causes,
of things almost despaired of.
Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone.
Help me, I implore you,
by that particular privilege given to you,
to bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of.

Come to my assistance in this great need,
that I may receive the consolation
and help of Heaven in all my necessities, tribulation and sufferings,
particularly (state request) and that I may praise
God with you and all the elect forever.
I promise, O blessed St Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favour,
to always honour you as my special & powerful patron & to gratefully encourage devotion to you.
Amen
