Entering Into Jerusalem. There is a diary that was discovered in 1884 by the Italian scholar Gian Francesco Gamurrini, in a monastic library in Arezzo, Italy. This diary was attributed to a certain Christian Lady, Egeria, who made a pilgrimage to the Old Testament and New Testament biblical sites. What is most fascinating about this journey is that it was taken sometime between the years of 318-384 AD, when travel was not easy nor safe, especially for a woman. Egeria (Etheria), was certainly a Lady of some means, but she also belonged to a group of women who dedicated themselves to service of God and neighbor. Her diary is correspondence written back to the “sisters” in Spain.

For us, what is most interesting is her detailed description of Holy Week, which she calls the “Great Week” in Jerusalem. We hear her relate to us many of the activities we have grown accustomed to in remembering Christ’s passion, death and resurrection. She gives a fine description of the Palm Sunday procession which began outside the city on the opposite hill; and how the Bishop would ride on a donkey, like Jesus, with the people following ahead of Him and behind, escorting their shepherd to the main church located by Golgotha and the tomb of Jesus.

We also hear of the gathering on the evening of Holy Thursday, to remember the beginning of the passion. On Good Friday she tells us that all would gather in the courtyard which was the location of Golgotha and there before a cross that marked the spot of Jesus’ crucifixion the Bishop would proclaim the passion narrative. “All,” she writes, “would be so moved by the sufferings of the Lord, that they would wail and cry loudly.” Then the Wood of the Cross would be brought out for veneration by the Elect, and all the faithful. She also recounts the great Easter Vigil in some detail.

What is most interesting overall is that the three days, we call the Triduum, were treated as one big day. People were directed after each service, sometimes two or three a day, to return to home and rest and then be back in the church by such and such a time. Obviously, people had to work, but during these three days it was not prayer that interrupted work but work that would interrupt prayer.

Coming to the liturgies of these three days is important if you believe that God did something fantastic for you back in Jerusalem. However, that is not always possible, but Egeria reminds us that we can still mark these days with prayer and fasting and celebration, even if we cannot be in church:

- ◆ Remembering the Last Supper at your Thursday meal
- ◆ Keeping silence on Good Friday from Noon until 3:00PM, abstaining from TV, internet, texting, Twittering, etc.
- ◆ Preparing yourself for Easter by fasting on Good Friday and Holy Saturday until the Easter Vigil.

There are many ways to bring your faith home. It is after all a faith that has endured though the ages. A person like Egeria reminds us how connected we are to all that happened in Jerusalem and that still happens today.

Our BIG Move. On Sunday, April 24th, at 5:00 PM, we will gather in Church to bid farewell to our place of worship. That evening we will proceed to the church prepared in the air-conditioned school gym where we will worship for 22 weeks while our church building is thoroughly cleaned of the smoke/soot damage it has incurred. I encourage you to join us for the occasion on Sunday, April 24th, at 5:00 PM. Your arms are needed to assist in bringing over the many items we use for our liturgies. There will be a little something for everyone to bring, if they wish, including the kids.

Certainly, there will be adjustments that everyone has to make during this period. Fr. Jacob and I will celebrate our summer weddings at neighboring parishes. We are grateful for their accommodation. While school is in session, funerals will be celebrated by Fr. Jacob and me along with our Music Ministry at the neighboring parishes of Our Lady of Consolation or St. Andrew, both in Merrillville. The location will depend upon availability. When school is recessed for the summer we will be able to accommodate funerals here until school resumes in late August.

Our Mass schedule will remain the same: the Sunday Vigil Mass at 5:00 PM on Saturdays and the 7:30, 9:30 and 11:30 AM Masses on Sunday mornings. Weekday Mass will remain at 7:00 AM and Saturday at 8:00 AM. However, the rosary and other devotions that would have happened after the 7:00 AM Weekday Mass must be suspended while school is in session. In addition, the Wednesday Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will be suspended until the school year is ended. When the children no longer occupy the school building during the summer break, those devotions and the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will resume until the new school year begins in late August.

Stayed tuned for updates. For your convenience we can send updates to your cell phone. This is a good way for us to be in communication with you during this time. Please send this text: MIKE to 84576 and then you will begin to receive our Flock Note advisories. Or you can sign up on line at: stmichaelparish.flocknote.com. Please note that these communications do not need your response; they are simply reminders about parish events and important information for your benefit.

WARRIOR OF THE WEEK

I am Maddison Riffle. I started going to this school in first grade and now I am an 8th grader. The high school that I will be attending is Washington Township High School. Some things that I participate/ participated in here at SMS are: girls volleyball, cheerleading, girls basketball, Art club, children's choir, band and Girl Scouts. I do a lot of out-of-school things like woodwork and sewing. I used to play piano. This past year I started going hunting with my dad. I have done woodworking classes with my grandpa and also glass blowing. My favorite thing about SMS is probably all the fun things we do as middle schoolers. We have dances, retreats, the sports banquet that the 7th graders puts on for the 8th graders, all the fun movie days and just being able to spend time with my friends. I will miss the teachers and all the friends that I have made throughout the years. I will miss the teachers because they have taught me so much through the years and they were amazing to me and helped me when I needed help. I will miss all the friends I've made throughout the years because they have always been there for me when I needed them and they are all so kind. My advice to the younger students is not to give up and to always do your best. If you are struggling, ask someone for help; the teachers are always willing to help you. Also don't worry about other people; focus on yourself and who you want to be.
