Hard to Believe. Sometimes things are hard to believe. The sudden passing of a loved one or meeting a long lost friend. Thomas finds it hard to believe. So do we many times. We find it difficult to believe that God forgives you and me for everything, and we find it even more difficult to believe that we are to do the same with others as God does with us. Thomas, however, is open to believing and he does in the end. After experiencing God's presence in our lives, do we believe or do we expect further proof? We are all prone to doubting but are you and I just as willing to believe that Jesus is really alive in our life, in this day and age? He is alive when we join Him in offering to those who hurt us the same peace He offers to you and me.

The lesson Thomas teaches is not about doubting but believing. He is unjustly remembered as the doubting Thomas. This is sad because his greater act was the ability to move beyond doubt to belief.

This belief is essential for us as we celebrate God's divine mercy offered to us in Jesus Christ. We commemorate this Sunday as the Sunday of Divine Mercy. We can sometimes be like Thomas and doubt God's mercy for us and for our world. Yet, that mercy is extended to us not to justify our sinfulness but to correct our willful disobedience. The counter to this disobedience is Jesus' obedience to God's will, to suffer and die for us to gain for us eternal life. We are drawn into this mystery of life and death in our daily human existence. Through Jesus' divine mercy we can grapple with it knowing that we will always end up on the side of life. So like Thomas we can exclaim, My Lord and My God.

Never Waste a Crisis. Today, as we celebrate this Second Sunday of Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday, we do so with joy as our children receive their First Holy Communion. Yet, we also gather with some uneasiness as we know that tonight we will leave this building and move over to the air-conditioned school gym, our gym-church. Our move is necessitated by the unfortunate smoke event that happened in January of 2021. This whole church building needs to be not just cleaned but the entire ductwork system will be removed and replaced because the oily carbon residue left from this smoke event cannot be sealed in the ducts. Fortunately our insurance is covering the cost of the work and our move to our gym-church.

This crisis, of sorts, is a good time to reflect upon our unity as a parish which is not based solely on where we gather to pray but how we pray where ever we find ourselves. It is fitting that we take a proper leave of this building in a prayerful spirit. Evening Prayer tonight at 5:00 PM is an important step in making use of this unfortunate crisis.

This time can be used by you and me to splinter away from each other like dried out wood, or it can be used as a time to purposefully stay together, united in prayer around the Altar of our Risen Lord. During Easter time we are regularly watered with the water of our baptism. This can stand as a reminder to us to stay green and supple as the branches of a healthy vine. This will be to our long term advantage as a parish community. Bending a bit in order to stay united as Jesus' people in the midst of this inconvenience will afford us substantial dividends now and in the future.

The strength of a family is shown when times get dicey, and there is some challenge to unite around and grow through. It is the same for us, our church family. A flyer with information about our gathering for weekday Mass tomorrow and attending church next Saturday evening and Sunday morning will be handed out to each of you after Mass this weekend. Please keep this information for reference, especially in the first few weeks, as we adjust ourselves to new patterns of parking, traffic and activities.

Stayed tuned for updates. For your convenience, we can send updates to your cell phone. This is a good way for us to be in communication with you during this time. Please send this text: MIKE to 84576 and then you will begin to receive our Flock Note advisories. Or you can sign up on line at: stmichaelparish.flocknote.com. Please note that these communications do not need your response, they are simply reminders about parish events and important information for your benefit.

SMS NEWS

WARRIOR OF THE WEEK

My name is Adelina Spina. I started attending SMS this year in 8th grade. I will most likely be going to Andrean. Growing up I did a lot of activities. I am a former Girl Scout. I currently play volleyball for school and outside of school. Volleyball is one of my favorite sports because I find it really fun and it makes me really happy when I play it. It helps me focus more on school so I know to get good grades in order to play. One of my favorite things about SMS is how the teachers instruct you. Someone can be struggling with something and they will find an easier way to teach it to you. They help me understand something better than I already do. Something I will miss leaving SMS will be my principal and my teachers. The principal and the teachers are most likely the best teachers and principal I have ever had. The principal treats kids really well and makes sure they stay safe and loved. The teachers make sure the children are happy and know what they are doing when it comes to academics. If I were to give advice to the younger students, I would say, you should not be afraid to ask for help or ask any questions when it comes to the need of that.

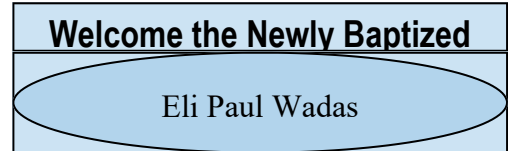

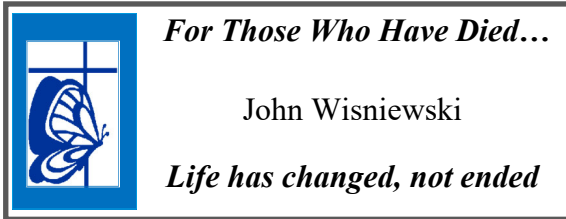

Always be respectful to your teachers and friends. You should also be really kind to others and treat people how you would want to be treated. Always include others in things that you would want to be a part of and let others join a game that you play. Meet new friends, let others do something with you, don't say that they can't do it with you.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY NEWS

MOTHER'S DAY/FATHER'S DAY MASS CARDS

The Respect Life Ministry will be selling Mother's Day and Father's Day Mass cards after all Masses the weekends of April 23rd/24th and April 30th/May 1st. For $2.00 you not only get a beautiful card to present to the women and men in your life, but their names will be entered in our Mass book and prayed for at Mass for a year. Mass cards can be bought for those living and also for the deceased. This is a major fundraiser for our group and allows us to continue our support of those organizations that are helping to promote life throughout the year.

For those who have not yet returned to Mass or miss us after Mass and you would like to just have a Mass said for the man or woman in your life, just PRINT their name(s) on a sheet of paper indicating Living or Deceased and enclose it with a check made out to St Michael Respect Life for $2.00 per name and place it in the black drop box outside the office in an envelope addressed to Respect Life Ministry. Names must be turned in by May 6th to have them added to the Mass list for Mother's Day.

We are here to assist anyone with temporary help. If you know someone from Schererville, Dyer, or St. John who could use help with their NIPSCO bill, rent, or groceries, please have that person in need (due to privacy act) call 322-4505, ext. 8250 and leave a message.

The Nun Is Driving

A highway trooper was surprised to find a nun behind the wheel of the car he just pulled over. "I'm terribly sorry, ma'am but it's not safe to do 35 mph on the interstate." She replies, "But all the signs say 35." "Those are route signs, ma'am. This is Route 35." At this point, he looks in the back seat to see two more nuns, mouths ajar, eyes wide open in an obvious state of shock. "What's the matter?" he asks. They reply, "Oh, we just pulled off of Route 99."

THE WORD

(Readings for May 1, 2022, Third Sunday of Easter)

I. Acts of the Apostles 5:27-32, 40b-41 The high priest interrogated the apostles and ordered them not to speak again about Jesus. The apostles left filled with joy for having been found worthy of ill-treatment for Christ.

II. Revelation 5:11-14 The author of Revelation had a vision and heard the voices of countless angels who surrounded the heavenly throne. They cried, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain...to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever."

III. John 21:1-19 Peter and the disciples fished all night but caught nothing. Jesus appeared to them, telling them to cast their nets again, and immediately the nets were filled with fish. After they ate, Jesus told Simon Peter, "Feed my lambs...tend my sheep."

Dear Parish Members,

Our Sunday bulletin is a primary way we use to communicate with you. The parish does not pay for the bulletin printing because of the generosity of our advertisers-many of which are our own parish members. Most are members of our local community. Please support our advertisers with your patronage. Let the business owner know that you appreciate their support of our parish through their advertising in the bulletin.

A strong and vibrant parish is good for our community and a strong business community is good for our parish.

If you would like to advertise in our bulletin, please call Barbara at 219-427-4803.
