From the Pastor's Desk

Don't rock the boat! I tried, for years, to enjoy fishing. When I was younger I used to be up early on vacation begging my father to take me out in the boat. Trouble was I didn't catch much of anything whether at dawn or at dusk. So, I learned that fishing could be exciting but it was mainly a matter of being. Being there in the boat or on the pier, just simply being there attentive to the red and white bobber, but not obsessive about its movement.

I now realize that this was good training for life. Life is very much like that time spent in the boat fishing. There is excitement, disappointment, a feeling of freedom and yet a sense of being tethered to the fishing pole, time to let the mind wonder yet being held down to earth by the waiting for the fish to bite.

One thing that always did put the fear of God into me was being out on the lake as a summer thunderstorm was brewing. The wind kicking up the placid water into choppy waves and trying to get back to the dock before the sky sent down its fury was more adrenaline producing than the tallest roller coaster. I can just imagine the fear of the disciples in that boat. Fear has a way of clouding out the hope that is present in a difficult situation. Jesus was that hope for them and He still is that hope for us in the stormy times of our life.

Those storms could be personal and they can be communal as well. As we strive to reach our needed goal to fix our church building we can become so fearful of our personal situation that they prevent us from hoping we can participate in the work that needs to be done. Our fear can paralyze us, fear I won't have enough, and fear that I can't contribute in a meaningful way, fear that what is broken cannot be fixed.

Fear would have sunk that tiny boat on that violent lake back in Galilee. But hope was quietly lying in the stern of the boat, when the disciples cried out in fear they awakened hope. Hope was all they had, hope personified in Jesus. Their cry was for help and so should ours be. In seeking help, we profess our certain faith that God is the one who does all the good work in our hearts. God can help you and me be generous and not let our fears trump our better and generous spirits.

Don't be afraid to cry for help, because that shows you expect an answer, and that is the practice of one's faith. Like the disciples on the lake we recognize that we have hope in the boat with us; hope personified in Jesus Christ, who does not abandoned us but looks for us to call upon Him and trust that He can calm our fears just as He did the waves.

THE WORD

(Readings for June 27, 2021, The Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

- I. Wisdom 1:13-15; 2-23-24 God did not make death and does not delight when life is destroyed. All creatures of the world are wholesome. Through the devil's envy, death entered the world.

- II. 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15 Paul the apostle wrote that the Corinthians have been given much by the Lord. They should give to others in need as others give to them in their own need.

- III. Mark 5:21-43 When Jesus was on His way to heal Jarius' daughter, a woman touched His cloak and was healed of her sickness. Jesus told the woman, "Daughter, your faith has saved you."
