We Are All Rescue People. Being rescued is something I would want to happen to me if I was in desperate, death-dealing, straights. I think we would all want to be rescued if it was necessary. But being rescued is far from a pleasant experience. Not only are we unable to fend for ourselves but in the rescue, we might be injured too. That is why there are “Good Samaritan Laws” that allow us to both rescue someone and to be rescued without worrying about how the rescue is accomplished.

In the first reading, Jeremiah, unjustly condemned, is thrown into a muddy well. He sinks in the mud. This is truly a desperate moment and he needs to be rescued. And so, he is. But we can be sure that the strain and stress of pulling him from the grasping mud caused many bruises and scrapes and perhaps even a broken shoulder.

Jesus is the one who pulls us from the grasping mud of sin, the mire that can drag us under. But in our rescue, there is some danger. In the gospel, Jesus relates the danger of being saved and following Him. In confessing our sinfulness to God in the Sacrament of Penance, we ask Jesus to raise us up, once again, to the purity of our baptismal day. This process is life-saving for us but also involves some difficulty. Not a difficulty set up by God but one set up by you and me. The grasp of mud that holds us down in the well can make us leery about our rescue.

It can be painful, like stretching a muscle that has gone limp, but the stretch is necessary for health and movement. So, too, is it with our need to confess to God in the Sacrament of Penance. Our brief discomfort produces for you and me a peace and security that cannot be gained in any other fashion. To hear the words “and I forgive you of your sins...” as Christ speaks them to us in the sacrament are priceless and makes the discomfort of the rescue worth it.

Not everyone wants to follow Jesus, not everyone wants to be reconciled to Him, even as He calls and looks for everyone. This is why He honestly warns us not to look for false unity; His rescue brings division all too often. Many will tell you and me to forgo the confessional, to try to save ourselves from the muddy pit. Yet, in all the history of the world this has not been possible. We simply sink deeper into the mud. We should not be fooled by these voices who think following Jesus is without difficulty or risk.

In the history of the Church, fathers have been turned against their sons and daughters against their mothers and even husbands against their wives all because of a simple call to love as Jesus loved. People who take Jesus’ command to love seriously often set themselves up for ridicule, rejection and even hatred.

Following the way of love is not about giving everyone everything that they want. Following Jesus’ way does not presume peace, rather it presumes division. Not everyone is open to growing in love. Some people, even some people we love dearly, are quite content to nurse their prejudice, revel in gossip and find fulfillment in being rude. This should not deter the faithful follower. We should know that many people did not accept our leader and His way of doing things. What makes us think that all people will accept our urging to follow the same way of living today? They won’t, and they don’t. But it still remains for you and me to point the way by our life that we live in Christ.

POLISH COURSES FOR K-8TH GRADE

Registration for the new St. Margaret Ann Polish Language School is set for 10:00 AM-12:00 PM, Aug. 20th, at Our Lady of Consolation Catholic Church, 8303 Taft St., Merrillville. Classes will be held from 5:30-8:00 PM on Tuesdays, Sept. 6th-May 9th, at the church. The school's mission is to teach Polish language, history, geography, religion, culture and traditions to the younger generation of Polonia. Courses in Kindergarten-8th grade are available. Enrollment in the preschool program is open to children as young as three years old, so long as they are potty-trained. Religion classes will be offered starting with first grade, with Holy Communion classes planned for third-graders. Cost for the 2022-2023 school year is $350 per child. The school - a non-profit organization run by a voluntary school board - is planning a variety of fundraisers such as a bake sale and dinner/dance, in which all profits will go toward school operations. Prior knowledge of the Polish language is not required for enrollment, but it is strongly advisable that there is a family member or other adult who is fluent in the Polish language available to help students with their coursework. The school is also seeking sponsorships and donations to be used toward necessary items such as school supplies, furniture, and equipment. For more information on enrollment and/or sponsorships, please visit St. Margaret Ann Polish Language School's Facebook page at "Polska Szkoła Merrillville Indiana," e-mail Polishschoolnwi@gmail.com, or call Malgorzata Blachut at 219-613-5148.

THE WORD

(Readings for August 21, 2022, Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time)

- I. Isaiah 66:18-21
The prophet spoke of the Lord's coming to gather all nations together. They would proclaim God's glory, bringing offerings to Jerusalem in clean vessels. The Lord chose some as priests.
- II. Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13
The author of Hebrews offered encouragement: "Do not disdain the discipline of the Lord...Make straight...that what is lame may not be disjointed but healed."
- III. Luke 13:22-30
Jesus told the people, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate." Make yourself known to the Lord so that the door will open for you. Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and the prophets will be safe in God's reign. "Some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last."
