From the Pastor's Desk

Things that last. Many studies have demonstrated that having more things does not make a person any happier. This revelation certainly comes as threatening news for a society based on consuming, buying one thing after another, in the search of happiness.

The promises advertisers make that you will be happier, cooler, more accepted and even saved by your next purchase or business conquest has such power that their claims cloud our inner vision. This advertising assault wants you and me to believe that the things of this world are eternal and the real eternal things are an illusion.

Saint James, in his letter to us, reminds us of the vicious cycle of desire, want and consumption. Where do wars come from? Where do conflicts arise? They come from our passions (he is not speaking about sexual passions but economic passions). The difficulty is caused by our insatiable desire to seek happiness in passing things and so we covet, we want what another has – be that love, a greener lawn, oil, money, or success and all its attachments. If it cannot be gotten, it is taken or you and I give into depression.

We confuse our wants with our needs with commercials that intend to make our wants the same as our needs. But they are not the same.

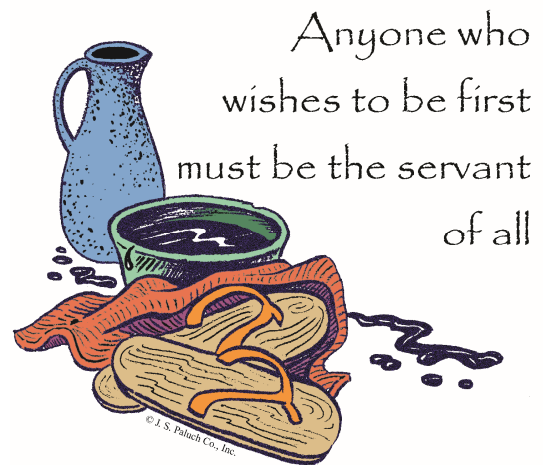

So how do we ask rightly and not wrongly? You and I need to listen to the scripture which tells us plainly that in order to be first we have to be last and in order to be served we must first serve. Ministry, that is, acting for others in Jesus name is the only way to contentment. Happiness that lasts, that suffers the ups and downs of life, is not found in nice lawns, big SUV's, or the right kind of smart phone.

Happiness is found not being a slave to changing fashions and societal expectations that drive people to drugs, sex and even taking their own life. The relentlessness of the "what's new" provides only passing satisfaction. Deep satisfaction comes from people, not things. People can be frustrating but they can be, more often than not, enlightening, loving and infinitely more interesting. Being with others, assisting others, walking with others is a proven way to happiness.

Step forward and volunteer to minister to others as a Minister of the Holy Communion, as a Lector proclaiming God's Word to the people, as a Hospitality Minister, as a Sacristan helping clean the church and preparing the church for Mass, or an Altar Server.

You could be a person who helps the less fortunate in our Good Samaritans Ministry, or a catechist helping to teach our children about the Faith, or a gardener, a volunteer lawn care person or in the myriad of other opportunities to fulfill Jesus' command to serve and not seek to be served. Next week on our Feast Day weekend (September 25th & 26th), you will have a chance to see all the ministries radiating from our parish and an opportunity to step into one or two that suit your God-given talents.

Give of your time to your school, share family time eating supper together at least a few times a week. You can be assured that your need to be content, successful and accepted will be met. It never fails that when we put our self-consuming passions behind us and direct that energy not to our wants but to the needs of others, we always have enough and indeed more prosperity than we can imagine.

MISSION & MINISTRIES

The Education and Formation Commission supports the parish community during our process of faith formation throughout our lives. It provides a variety of programs to help all parishioners in their faith journey to grow in the knowledge and love of the Lord. This commission includes the Director of Religious Education, the School Principal, the liaison from the Pastoral Council, at-large members from the parish, and representatives from the following ministries:

Adult Catholic Education Ministry

Janice Gatons

322-4505, ext. 8241

jgatons@stmichaelparish.life

- This ministry organizes informational sessions related to various aspects and topics of our Roman Catholic Faith Tradition in order that the community may come to better understand their religious identity and faith. This group meets on an as needed basis and holds informational sessions for the parish 3-4 times a year.

Catholic Bible Study

Linda Hansen

322-1717

lhansen@marianchs.com

- Delving into books of the Bible over a designated time frame, Catholic Bible Study offers adults a deeper comprehension of Sacred Scripture and its relevance to modern times. Each participant has the opportunity to explore individually and through group participation God's revelation to us and the connection to Church Tradition.

Faith Formation

Kimberley Hoogeveen

322-3077

khoogeveen@stmichaelparish.life

- The vision of the Faith Formation Committee is to provide opportunities for lifelong faith formation for the St. Michael Catholic Community and affirm parishioners in the practice of their faith within the family, parish, and community, under the direction and leadership of the pastor. This is accomplished by providing a variety of programs and resources that will assist parishioners in their spiritual growth and outreach to others as the followers of Jesus Christ. Programs include Traditional, Family Faith, and Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (beginning at age three). The Faith Formation Board meets monthly.

THE WORD

(Readings for September 26, 2021, The Patronal Feast of St. Michael the Archangel)

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--|
| I. Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14 | Thousands upon thousands were ministering to the Ancient One. |
| II. Revelation 12:7-12ab | Michael and his angels battled against the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought back, but they did not prevail and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. |
| III. John 1:47-51 | And Jesus said to Nathanael, “Amen, amen, I say to you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man.” |

Dear Parish Members,

Our Sunday bulletin is a primary way we use to communicate with you. The parish does not pay for the bulletin printing because of the generosity of our advertisers-many of which are our own parish members. Most are members of our local community. Please support our advertisers with your patronage. Let the business owner know that you appreciate their support of our parish through their advertising in the bulletin.

A strong and vibrant parish is good for our community and a strong business community is good for our parish.

If you would like to advertise in our bulletin, please call Barbara at 219-427-4803.
